CURRENT COMMENT

CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

Oswell Stanley is easily now the most talked-of Congressman in Washington. He has just attacked Geo. W. Perkins for his gift to the Republican campaign fund in 1904.

In a civil suit the Government attacks the moving picture combine which is alleged to hold an absolute monopoly and to dominate seven thousand exhibitors.

Sidna Edwards, charged with shooting up the Hillsville courthouse has asked that he be allowed to see his mother before he accepts a compromise sentence of fifteen years.

Following raids on eighteen establishments, announcement is made from the office of New York's District Attorney that three "vice trusts" in that city control four thousand women.

Rebels raided the hacienda of American Consul Dickinson at San Luis Potosi, beating employees and carrying off horses and money. Orozco's army evacuated Juarez and the Federals are ready to enter the border capital.

Sidna Edwards, one of the Hillsville, Va., court assassins, pleaded guilty to second degree murder and was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary. Two of his kinsmen have been found guilty of murder in the first degree and on his mother's advice he accepted a compromise.

A plan to have all editors of Democratic and independent newspapers of the country gather at Seagirt for a conference has been approved by Gov. Wilson. Reports reaching the standardbearer yesterday counted New York and Minnesota for him. He was gratified at the news that in California Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, the novelist, had taken the stump for him.

MEXICAN JOAN OF ARC.

Wife Of A Rebel Colonel Headed Small Band Of Looters.

NONE SAID HER NAY

Made Shopkeepers Give Up Their Wares, and Rode Gaily Away on Policemen's Horses.

Juarez, Mexico, Aug. 19.—For a few hours Saturday a Mexican Joan of Arc was the dictator of this town. With ten rebel soldiers marching at the heels of her horse she rode up to the police station and disarmed the provisional chief of police and six of his men and then the rebels rode away mounted on the policemen's horses. The woman fearlessly entered stores and demanded and received provisions and then shortly before daylight rode out of town with her admiring followers. She is said to be the wife of Col. Lazero Alanis, rebel commander operating around Palomas. It is believed she has gone to join her husband after her raid on this town, which is unprotected save for a few police installed at the departure last week of Orozco's rebels.

Clothed in a khaki riding suit and riding a white horse, the young woman dashed here and there through the town collecting the stragglers in the rebel ranks. Her raid on the police station was an utter surprise. The police meekly surrendered their arms.

Tonight a guard of forty citizens armed with all manner of antique weapons is patrolling the streets.

Great Aerial Comedians With Ringling Bros.' Circus.

The Mardo, a European family of lofty bar comedians, are making their first tour of America with Ringling Bros.' circus. Their act is the funniest mid-air performance ever presented. There are twelve in the company and they keep the audience in an uproar of merriment.

Nicaraguan Revolution

The four days' battle between the Nicaraguan forces and the rebels at Managua resulted in fourteen of the Federal forces being killed and 125 wounded, with between 450 and 500 of the rebels either killed or wounded.

Albuquerque, N. M., Aug. 18.—According to a dispatch received this evening, Williams, Ariz., 400 miles west of here, was severely shaken by an earthquake of brief duration this afternoon. Pass the Cake.

Hamden, O.—The prize snake story comes from Lilly, south of here. Of late Mrs. Daniel Cottle has been considerable worried over the disappearance of china eggs she had been using as "teasers" to keep her hens on the job. On a visit to the henery recently to make the daily gathering she was horrified at the sight of a large blacksnake which held full possession. Her husband, with a shot from an old musket, blew off the rattler's head. About six feet in length its body was found to be knotted with peculiar protuberances. On slitting it open all of the missing china eggs were recovered from within.

Rich Find.

Ten thousand dollars in gold, believed to have been hidden by William Anderson, a bandit who terrorized Central Missouri immediately after the civil war, has been found in an old manor house in Howard county, now the property of C. F. Yancey of Liberty. Employees of Yancey are remodeling the house.
